

Tonight (14 at 18:30) Dr. David Tarr will make the opening address for our conference on the costs of protection, licensing fees, etc.

Where: Corpus 4, 3rd floor, Great Hall, Illinska Street, 9

A number of our students and professors will be presenting papers at the conference, and you wish to see them in action. Amongst the presenters:

- Dmitro Zhosan, 'The Welfare Effects of Sugar Market Controls in Ukraine'
- Serhiy Peredriy, 'Corruption of Economic Development: Cigarette & Street Vendors'
- Vitaly Myloshyk, 'Economic Consequences of Corruption'
- Gene Ellis, 'Assessing the Costs of the AutoZaz-Daewoo Agreement'

all in Panel 1, 9 am, Thursday

- Vasyl Golovetskii, 'Trade Restriction Effects in the Presence of a Quality Parameter'
- Eduard Novoseletsky, 'The Shadow Economy in Ukraine'

both in Panel 2, 11 am (10:30 for coffee and pastries!)

- Iryna Lukianenko, 'Modeling the Allocation of Subsidies between Region of Ukraine'
- Tetyana Sytnyk, 'Evaluating Efficiency of Local Public Expenditures in Ukraine'
- Yadviga Semikolenova, 'Taxation and Small & Medium Enterprises'
- Dmytro Voloshyn, 'Reforming the Tax System of Ukraine'

all of the above in Panel 3 at 14:30

- Veronika Movchan, 'The Welfare Costs of Certification,'
- Antony Dnees, 'A Simplified Approach to Commitment in Licensing Contracts'

both in Panel 4 at 16:30

Plus an important panel of Ukrainians discussing research for better policy in Ukraine at 18:00.