

Serhiy Gvozdiov

PhD, MBA.

Managing partner of "Necessary and Sufficient" Ltd., approved tutor of Project Management at the Edinburgh Business School Eastern Europe (Kyiv), professor of Operations Management at Kyiv School of Economics and Lviv School of Business at Ukrainian Catholic University (Lviv), adjunct professor at St.Thomas University (Minneapolis, USA).

Main area of work – training and consulting in flow management, based on Theory of Constraints (TOC) and Lean Thinking. From 2008 to 2010 Serhiy was head of Goldratt Schools of Ukraine.

Serhiy conducts corporate seminars and trainings in project and operations management, supply chain management. Among clients there are such companies as: Ferrexpo, Kraft Foods Ukraine, Nestle, Raiffeisen Aval, Luxoft, DTEK (Donbas Fuel-Energy Company), Zaporozhe's Transformer Plant, IDS (Industrial Distribution Systems, Ukraine), Fast Food Systems (the largest restaurant chain in Ukraine), and others.

Serhiy passed trainings in programs of Japan International Cooperation Agency (Japan), Goldratt Schools (Israel), IESE (University of Navarra, Barcelona), OWZ consulting center (Munich), Wayne State University Business School (Detroit, USA) and others. December, 2012 Serhiy graduated with distinction course in Operations Management at Coursera – distance learning platform.

.

2008 © Бизнес-школа ИПМ