

Dr. Edilberto L. Segura

Dr. Segura is Chief Economist, President of the Investment Committee and Director of SigmaBleyzer. He is also the Chairman of the Advisory Board of The Bleyzer Foundation and the Chairman of the Investment Climate Committee of the European Business Association of Ukraine.

For several years Dr. Segura was a Fellow and Lecturer at the Said Business School of the University of Oxford in the UK, where he lectured on Emerging Capital Markets. He was also a Visiting Professor at the MBA Program of George Washington University in Washington DC, where he taught Financial Decision Making.

Before joining SigmaBleyzer in 1998, for 27 years Dr. Segura was a Senior Manager at the World Bank in Washington DC where he held the positions of Country Director, Technical Director, Deputy Director, Principal WB Adviser, and Division Chief in several regions including Europe, Middle East, Africa, Asia, and Latin America. Dr. Segura was also the Chief of the World Bank's office in Kiev from 1996 to 1998. Before joining the World Bank, Dr. Segura was Vice-President and Economist of Bailey, Tondou, Warwick and Co., a New York investment bank with operations in Europe, Asia and Latin America.

Dr. Segura holds PhD (Finance and Economic Development) and MA (Economics) degrees from Columbia University in New York, an MBA degree from Stanford University in California, and an Industrial Engineering degree from Peru. He also attended the Advanced Management Program at Harvard University, the Corporate Strategy Program of MIT and the Kiel Institute for World Economics in Kiel, Germany.